

Living by Faith Ink and Remoglue on Paper H24 by W17.75

There are times in everyone's life when all one can do is live by faith. Though one cannot see a way through the obstacles that crowd the road, a way exists, though not visible to the human eyes. That is why I have depicted someone who has chosen to sit and contemplate his or her situation. In this man's heart, there is a sense that there is one who knows his path and will guide him through successfully.